

CALL FOR ENTRY

Short Film Competition

Filmmakers are invited to submit films for consideration as part of the ninth annual Short Film Competition organized by the Barrie Film Festival. The deadline date is September 24, 2010 and films must be received on or before this closing date to be considered.

Films should be no longer than ten (10) minutes in length (including credits) and all genres are eligible including narrative, documentary, animation and experimental film. Personal, corporate and promotional films are not eligible. This is a juried event and only entries submitted in standard DVD format will be considered. Only official selections determined by the jury will be publicly screened as part of the Barrie Film Festival's annual Short Film Program to be held on Saturday, October 16, 2010. Of these selections select prizes will be awarded in several categories.

For more information about the Short Film Competition please read the official guidelines before making submissions.

Guidelines

The Short Film Competition is open to all filmmakers and the deadline for submissions is September 24, 2010. Films made in all formats are eligible (8 mm, Super 8, 16 mm, VHS-C, Hi 8, Mini DV) but entries must be submitted in standard DVD format (authored and formatted for consumer DVD players or home theater systems). The official selections will be converted to digital format for showcase screening.

Entries must have been completed after January 1, 2008 and must not exceed ten (10) minutes in length (including credits). Non-English films must have English subtitles. Films that have been previously submitted to the Short Film Competition are not eligible. Submissions received by the closing date of competition will be reviewed by a jury and will be judged based on Production (directing, writing, originality and acting), Cinematography (camerawork, lighting, composition), Sound (music, dialog, effects, mixing), and Post-production (cutting/editing, transitions, pacing). The decisions of the jury are final and the results will be communicated to the entrants via supplied e-mail or phone number. Select Prizes will be awarded as part of the Barrie Film Festival's Short Film Program on October 16, 2010.

There is no entry fee for the Short Film Competition but all entries must be accompanied by a completed entry form and proper identification including name, title, running time, originating format, mailing address, phone number and e-mail address. A brief description is also required as is a still image (photograph, slide or digital format) that can be used for promotional purposes. Do not send film prints, master tapes or other originals. Submissions can only be returned if accompanied by a self-addressed stamped envelope.
